The Ladies Toggery

Formerly A. Hunsaker

Mesa, Arizona

GAVE SURPRISE PARTY.

Mrs. Will Kimball was one of the most surprised ladies in Mesa yesterday morning when a party of her friends walked in, while she was in the midst of her regular morning work. The ladies met at the home of Mrs. A. L. Hawley, and proceeded in a body to the Kimball residence. Each guest was laden with something nice in the line of eatables and shortly after the noon hour, the table was spread with all the seasonable delicacies, and in the center of the table was a large cake. The ladies enjoyed music, and recitations, and guessing contests, and had a most enjoyable day, as did the hostess, when she had recovered from her surprise. Among those present were, Mesdames E. Butler, E. A. Hawley, W. S. Starr, M. A. Thompson of San Jose, W. A. Davis, C. E. Hemperly of Phoenix, Kansas, L. W. Stillewell, L. E. Irwin, V. S. Irwin, A. G. Allison, Bert Winger, J. L. Coffin, J. T. McFarland, F. P. Drew, A. L. Hawley, W. H. Hogle, and Miss Hemperly.

SELLING REAL ESTATE.

The Arizona Land company has been busy these past few days and have closed several deals in real estate. Among the sales was the lot in the Horne subdivision which was sold to Guy Johnson, another lot in same tract to Phil Conley and two lots in the southern part of the city to J. J. Armstrong. Messrs. Armstrong and Jones are building frame cottages on their new holdings, and it is rumored that Mr. Conley will follow suit soon. Another important deal was the transferring of thirty acres of alfalfa land of the J. W. LeSueur tract to E. L. Hadlock.

A HAIR'S BREADTH ESCAPE.

Do you know that every time you have a cough or a cold and let it run, thinking it will just cure itself, you are inviting pneumonia, consumption or some other pulmonary trouble? No dyspepsia or belching of gas or perfect health and stop that cough with Ballard's Horehound Syrup. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Elvey & Hulst.

DROVE TO PHOENIX.

Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Sadler drove to Phoenix and back Sunday, and report a very pleasant trip.

MRS. ANGULO ARRIVES.

Mrs. C. E. Angulo and two little children arrived Sunday morning and are comfortably domiciled in the Felton cottage. Mr. Angulo is looking very happy in consequence.

MOVING TO THE GILA.

J. J. Ryan left yesterday for the Gila river where he has a contract with the Noonan Canal company to excavate. He drove over and the long line of four mule teams, laden with feed, bedding, cooking outfit, and machinery necessary in the business, together with the loose stock which was being herded, gave the streets the appearance of a circus coming to town. Mr. Ryan's many friends met his departure, and hope he will be back in this vicinity again soon.

The old, old story, told times without number, and repeated over and over again for the last 35 years, but it is always a welcome story to those in search of health—There is nothing in the world that cures coughs and colds as quickly as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Sold by all dealers.

ADDRESSED HIGH SCHOOL.

Mrs. Susan Young Gates and Julius F. Wells who are here in attendance of the quarterly conference of the Mormon church were visitors to the Mesa high school yesterday morning. They were much impressed by the big building and the large number of students enrolled, and both distinguished visitors addressed the assembled scholars in the auditorium. Mrs. Gates has a particularly happy address, and her remarks were thoroughly enjoyed, as was the speech of Mr. Wells.

AT THE VANCE TONIGHT.

Manager Vance has secured the "Country Cousin" for tonight along with the regular moving pictures and vaudeville. He had word from Phoenix where this act has been presented that it is one of the best of the season and well worth the price of admission. Miss Lillian Walton and Frank Jones are the performers in this funny sketch and are said to be exceptionally good. Miss Walton is a graceful dancer and a singer of ability, and Mr. Jones is a comedian of the first water, so that the show tonight should be well attended.

Johnson and Openshaw who recently bought out Barclay had decided to move their grocery store into the Popular building, but they will not be able to get that store room for another thirty days, so have made arrangements to move into the old LeBaron store, next to the Mesa Cold Storage Market. R. N. Stapley will enlarge his present quarters by tearing down the partition between his shop and the old Barclay store and combining the two rooms for his business.

STAYED IN PHOENIX.

A. Teal is employed by G. Fritz Martin in the butcher business, and part of his duties consist in soliciting orders from the housewives of town. Yesterday morning, much to their consternation Mr. Teal did not appear, and it seems he was held in Phoenix over night to appear as witness in the Hamilton-Lee case.

Her Heart Was Broken.

because her complexion was had and she could find nothing to clear it up. Ladies: a bad complexion is caused by an inactive liver. An inactive liver will be put in perfect condition by taking Ballard's Horebine. The unequalled liver regulator.

FORGOT HE HAD BOOTS.

R. C. Lyda and Don LeBaron went hunting Sunday, and down by the river they had some good duck shooting. There were about a dozen of the delectable birds in the water, and Mr. Lyda's dog refused to go in and get them. While trying to get the pup in the cold water, the birds gradually began to float down stream, so Mr. Lyda pulled off his clothes and plunged into the cold water. He came out with a half dozen ducks in each hand, and walked almost to the buggy when he suddenly stopped and said a few words which were not for publication and wound up with "And if I didn't have those long rubber boots in that blamed rig."

The Republican joins with Mr. Noble's many friends in extending sympathy to him.
